Share the Spirit....

Dear Parents and Carers,

Our community was deeply saddened by the tragic death of one of our community last Saturday. Jason Beckett husband of Raylene and dad of Logan, Jarrod and Phoebe (3Blue) was killed in an accident on Sutton Road on Saturday.

We hold the Beckett family very much in our thoughts and prayers.

Rest In Peace

It is possible that this sudden death will raise some questions and concerns for our children. It is reasonable that children will identify very closely with this news and may begin to question the safety of their own parents. This is a very normal reaction.

Explaining Death in a Child's Terms

Be honest with kids and encourage questions. This can be hard because you may not have all the answers. But it is important to create an atmosphere of comfort and openness, and send the message that there's no one right or wrong way to feel. You might also share any spiritual beliefs that you have about death.

A child's capacity to understand death - and your approach to discussing it - will vary according to the child's age. Each child is unique, but here are some rough guidelines to keep in mind.

Until kids are about 5 or 6 years old, their view of the world is very literal. So explain the death in basic and concrete terms. The person's body stopped working and explain that dead means that the body stopped working.

Kids this young often have a hard time understanding that all people and living things will eventually die and that it's final and they won't come back. Avoid using euphemisms, such as telling them that the dead person 'went away' or 'went to sleep' or even that they are 'lost'. Because your kids think so literally, such phrases might inadvertently make them afraid to go to sleep or fearful whenever someone goes away.

www.kidshealth.org

In my many years of assisting children through the process of dealing with death it is always best to be as honest as you can. It is okay to say that you don't know the answers. Death of a loved one is something that inevitably our children will deal with and whilst we cannot shield them from the pain and sadness of loss we can help them to cope which helps them to build emotional resources they can rely on throughout life. Please do not hesitate to contact me if I can be of any assistance.

May you always be aware of the great Mercy of God

From the Principal.....

PRAYERS: Please keep in your prayers all those who are grieving the death of a loved one. We remember too those who work in our emergency services and deal with tragic deaths. We pray for our Year 6 students who are preparing for the sacrament of Confirmation.

CONGRATULATIONS: Engagement news - Congratulations to K White teacher, Amy Hazell and Kosta Kouparitsas on their engagement.

Emily O'Grady (4 Red) who is the 8 years ACT Irish Dance Champion. Also to her cousin Claudia Balogh (ex St Greg's Student) who is the 13 years Champion.

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION MASS: Yesterday we all gathered to celebrate the Feast of the Assumption - commemorating when Mary was assumed body and soul into heaven - with Mass. It was a beautiful celebration where all students demonstrated extraordinary reverence and prayerfulness. The highlight was the amazing choir - our male teachers who modelled deep respect and appreciation for our greatest female - Mary. Thank you gentleman, wonderful role models for all.

CHOIR TRIUMPH: I received this email from Bob Perkins, Event Co-ordinator, KSC Canberra Branch - The 3rd Archdiocese of Canberra and Goulburn Catholic Primary Schools Choir Festival was held last Thursday at St John Paul II College Nichols, ACT involving some 230 participants, teachers, parents and officials. Archbishop Christopher Prowse presented the awards and enjoyed the combined choir performance involving some 180 students and conducted expertly by Mrs Dee McFaul and accompanied by Mr Jim Bowring (both from St Gregory's School, Queanbeyan). The awards were:

- 1st Place - St Patrick's Parish School, Cooma NSW
- 2nd Place - St Gregory's School, Queanbeyan NSW
- 3rd Place - St Benedict's Primary School, Narrabundah ACT

The judges were – Jaki Kane – Musical Director of St Christopher's Cathedral, Canberra; Rachel Campbell – Director of Music, Australian Rugby Choir and Director of Music, Intermediate Choir, Woden Valley Youth Choir; Leanne McKean – Head of Music, Radford College and Director of Music, Canberra Men's Choir. The whole festival was run and co-ordinated by the Canberra Branch of the Knights of the Southern Cross with the support of Mrs Maree Williams from Catholic Education.

MORE CHOIR NEWS: I was contacted by Maree Williams from Catholic Education last Friday to share with me the impressive behaviour demonstrated by the members of the choir. So it seems as well as singing like angels they behaved like ones too. I commend the choir members for their success, and acknowledge how hard they have worked. I wish to thank most sincerely our Choir Director, Mrs Dee McFaul and our volunteer accompanist Mr Jim Bowring. They have worked hard to provide this wonderful opportunity for our students.

NR PUBLIC SPEAKING: Congratulations to the students who represented St Gregory's School at the Northern Region public speaking competition in Braidwood last Thursday. The adjudicator was very apt when she explained that all public speaking requires great courage and skill and as such, every child present was already a champion. The students who attended were: Year 3: April Taylor, Matilda Howell Year 4: Aimee Perrett, Kate Bartu Year 5: Hayden Meadley, Eden D'Souza Year 6: Charlotte Green and Mia Scrivener. Special congratulations to Eden D'Souza who has been selected to represent the Northern Region at the Archdiocesan competition. Well done to all.

WAKAKIRRI: Our Year 5 team have done it again! They will be performing at the Wakakirri Awards Night on Thursday 22 September at 7:15pm at Canberra Theatre. Great teamwork and cooperation skills on display again. Well done to everyone involved.

YEAR 6 EXCURSION: Year 6 students attended the 'Science in ACTION' exhibition last Friday at the old bus depot in Kingston. The exhibition had information relating to such things as drone technology and application, robotics, augmented reality, biodiversity management, computer applications and emerging assistive technologies. The students were highly engaged and enthused by what they saw on the day. The Year 6 teachers accompanying the students on the day could not have been more proud of the behaviour students displayed at the event. A big thank you to Year 6 parents, Anna Foster and Matthew Dormer for assisting in supervision on the excursion.

TROPICAL CYCLONE WINSTON: Earlier this year the community responded with their usual generosity to an appeal for school resources for the Fiji following the devastation of Cyclone Winston that struck the island nation on the 20th February 2016. The following are excerpts from a letter of appreciation from the Fijian High Commissioner (08/08/16) May I please take this opportunity, on behalf of the Government and People of the Republic of Fiji, to convey my heartfelt gratitude in respect of the generosity of St Gregory's.....Words cannot truly convey the gratitude felt by the generosity of St Gregory's Primary School and tireless efforts to help Fiji recover from the devastating impacts of the cyclone.

BOOK WEEK: Next week is Book Week. Parades – MONDAY @ Lowe and TUESDAY @ Mac.

Book Week

Book Week 2016 is next week! This annual event which is celebrated in August each year highlights the importance of reading and draws on the joy of stories and creativity of Australian books. Book Week is about encouraging students to read; to learn about new books; to share favourite writers and illustrators; to look again at old favourite books in maybe a different way; to take time to be alone and just read.

This year's theme is "Australia! Story Country" which is currently being explored during Library lessons as a unit focus. Throughout the term, students will be exposed to a range of Children's Book Council of Australia notable and shortlisted picture books in both print and audio-visual format. Students will also engage in selected learning activities such as book reviews, craft based activities, & utilise new technology tools to promote their work.

- Lowe Street Book Character Dress up Parade: Monday 22nd August at 9am.
Possum Magic Play performed by some of St Gregory's Library Monitors at 11:40am.
- MacQuoid Street Book Character Dress up Parade: Tuesday 23rd August.
Possum Magic Play performed first at 9:15am followed by Parade.
