LION'S CLUB QUEANBEYAN DISTRICT 201N2 2017 CONVENTION CHOIR PERFORMANCE

Dear Parent/Caregiver

Welcome to term 4. Thank you for your tremendous support of our choir during term 3. We successfully led the NAIDOC mass at St Christopher's, won the Catholic Schools music festival and obtained a first and second place at the Goulburn Eisteddfod. On top of all that the choir did an amazing job in leading school masses. I am very proud of the choir and their outstanding behaviour always is a powerful representation of our school values to the wider community.

Lion's convention 2017- Saturday 21st October

Parents and students were advised in term 1 of two dates where the full choir is expected to perform. These two performances are very important as they allow the choir to give back to the wider Queanbeyan community and all choir members are to attend. The first of these performances is for the District Lion's Club Convention. It is an honour to have been asked to perform at the opening morning's event. Our local Lion's club has supported past school's events, including providing free sausage sizzle to the NAIDOC week marchers. This is our turn to say thank you. We will be singing three songs plus the National Anthem. The year five students will be doing the two indigenous songs- so I am really needing all year five students to attend.

Where: Bicentennial Hall Crawford Street, Queanbeyan

What time: 8-30 am. Finished by 9-15 a.m.

Performance Uniform: Blue shirt, tie, school shoes and black pants.

Could your child please return the attached permission form by the start of week 2 so I have an indication of how many are attending.

Yours sincerely,
Dee Mcfaul
